

Donnetta Elsassner

Washington State Cadre of Educators, 2007-present
National Board Certification in Social Studies, 2011

Twenty-seven years in education

- Twenty-two years at grades 6-12—I teach all social studies classes from 6th to 12th grade in our tiny K-12 school in Touchet
- Six years in Early Childhood Education
- Twenty years of student-community service learning projects, including Project Citizen State and National Showcase awards
- Design-partner teacher for Big History Project curriculum with 9th graders
- Consulting for the Constitutional Rights Foundation in the History Experience program
- Committee work with the Washington State Professional Educator Standards Board on social studies teacher certification and program requirements
- Civic Education Presenter for OSPI, ESD 123, and Washington State Council for the Social Studies, 2000-present
- State trainer for Project Citizen civics program, 2000-present
- Washington State Civic Educator of the Year finalist, 2012
- Enhancing Education Through Technology (EETT) Peer Coach, 2009-2011
- Washington State Social Studies Teacher of the Year, 2006
- Civic Star Award, 2006
- Washington Traffic Safety Superstar Award, 2004
- Teacher Leadership Project instructor, 2000-2005