

MULTIPLE PERSPECTIVES
ACTIVITY: THE BOLDT
DECISION

Tribal Members &
Federal Gov't.

Sport and Commercial
Fishermen

On February 12, 1974, Federal Judge George Boldt issues an historic ruling reaffirming the rights of Washington's Indian tribes to fish in accustomed places. The "Boldt Decision" allocates 50 percent of the annual catch to treaty tribes.

State
Government

Property
Owners

Question: What perspective will each group bring to this discussion?