III. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. RCW 28A.410 gives the Professional Educator Standards Board the authority to develop regulations determining eligibility for and certification of personnel employed in the common schools of the state of Washington. OSPI acts as the administrator of those statutes and regulations and has the authority to issue, reprimand, suspend, and revoke education certificates. RCW 28A.410.010, RCW 28A.410.090, WAC 181-86, and WAC 181-87 further implement OPSI's authority.
2. OSPI has jurisdiction over Ms. Buissink and the subject matter discussed herein.

3. Ms. Buissink committed acts of unprofessional conduct, pursuant to WAC 181-87-060(1).

4. There is clear and convincing evidence that Ms. Buissink committed unprofessional conduct. WAC 181-86-170 (Burden and standard of proof).

5. Pursuant to WAC 181-86-080, 11 factors, at a minimum, are to be considered to determine the appropriate level and range of educator discipline:

- 1) The seriousness of the act(s) and the actual or potential harm to persons or property;
- 2) The person's criminal history including the seriousness and amount of activity;
- 3) The age and maturity level of participant(s) at the time of the activity;
- 4) The proximity or remoteness of time in which the acts occurred;
- 5) Any activity that demonstrates a disregard for health, safety or welfare;
- 6) Any activity that demonstrates a behavioral problem;
- 7) Any activity that demonstrates a lack of fitness;
- 8) Any information submitted regarding discipline imposed by any governmental or private entity as a result of acts or omissions;
- 9) Any information submitted that demonstrates aggravating or mitigating circumstances;
- 10) Any information submitted to support character and fitness; and
- 11) Any other relevant information submitted.

6. Based on the foregoing facts and considering them in light of the 11 factors enumerated in WAC 181-86-080, and in light of WAC 181-86-070 (Grounds for issuance of an order of suspension), and WAC 181-87-060(1), Ms. Buissink's education certificate should be suspended for unprofessional conduct.

7. As a matter of compromise, the parties have reached this Agreed Order of Suspension in lieu of proceeding to hearing and litigating the related facts and issues before an Administrative Law Judge, as authorized by RCW 28A.300.120.

IV. ORDER

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that the Washington Education Certificate, No. 483105C, of Tiffany Buissink, be suspended for four (4) months, and that REINSTATEMENT of Ms. Buissink's education certificate shall require the following: (1) successful completion of a
