Jumpstart to Success: Starting the New School Year with the Latest OSPI-WSAC Info and Resources

Question	Answer
Where could we find the FSA ID lesson plan?	https://drive.google.com/file/d/1L7cGxOwch7BparDR5wBL3IJ0JmhINBYS/view?usp=sharing https://padlet.com/christinaw12/12th-year-campaign-key-to-success-financial-aid-resources-cxbz1z64bch5jbsf https://wsac.wa.gov/aim-higher-training
Regarding RS - "qualified students" is there a minimum standard that students need to be academically to participate in RS?	They need to meet the college's admissions requirements. There is no minimum standard that can/should be applied by the high school or district. It is the college's discretion.
I heard that the High school and beyond plan is starting to impact middle school kids (Grade 7th to 8th) is there any additional information regarding that?	Yes, the new legislation requires that the initial step for the HSBP must start by 7th grade with a career interest and skills inventory.
Is there funding available to support college and career readiness? If so, can you please share some resources?	Yes, possibly. Please reach out to your CCLC coordinator. Or, reach out to Stephanie Thompson stephanie.thompson@k12.wa.us to get connected!
Tim - can I have your contact information so we could talk a couple specifics?	Email tim.mcclain@k12.wa.us to schedule something by phone or Zoom.
