5. On December 8, 2012 and April 13, 2013, Jannine Allen took the WEST-E subject matter test in science. Jannine Allen failed to pass the tests.
6. On August 31, 2012, Jannine Allen created an online application through the Yakima School District Human Resources online application system.
7. On April 15, 2013, Jannine Allen submitted an application for a substitute teaching certificate through Heritage University.

That residency teacher application was placed on hold at Heritage University pending Jannine Allen's successful completion of the WEST-E subject matter testing requirements.

9. On April 24, 2013, Jannine Allen was issued a Washington substitute teaching certificate through Heritage University.

10. On June 3, 2013, Jannine Allen created an application profile through a cooperative online job center that serves the East Valley, Finley, Granger, Mount Adams, Prosser, Toppenish and Wapato school districts.

11. On June 14, 2013, Jannine Allen took the WEST-E subject matter test in science.

12. On or about July 3, 2013, Jannine Allen was notified via email and the National Evaluation Services (NES) website of her failure of the WEST-E subject matter test in Science.

13. On an unknown date after April 24, 2013 and prior to July 25, 2013, Jannine Allen created a fraudulent residency teaching certificate for herself. This certificate shows an invalid certificate number 498375A, an issue date of June 24, 2013 and an endorsement in Science.

15. On July 24, 2013, Jannine Allen submitted an online application for full time science teacher positions through the online application system of the Yakima School District. 16. On August 1, 2013, Jannine Allen interviewed for a full time science teacher position in the Yakima School District.

17. On August 12, 2013, the Human Resources staff at Yakima School District contacted the OSPI Certification office via email regarding two certificate numbers for Jannine Allen and the legitimacy of a scanned residency teaching certificate that Jannine Allen had provided to the Yakima School District. The OSPI Certification Office confirmed that they did not process the certificate and the number 498375A listed on the residency teaching certificate is not a valid certificate number.

21. On September 6, 2013, OPP contacted Heritage University and verified that Jannine Allen was not eligible for a residency teaching certificate because she has not completed the WEST-E subject area testing requirements.

22. On September 20, 2013, Jannine Allen submitted a letter to OPP. In the letter, Jannine Allen intentionally made false and misleading statements about the allegations including, but not limited to, uncertainty of how a false certificate could be made or sent and that her estranged husband was responsible for the fraudulent certificate.
