IN THE MATTER OF THE EDUCATION CERTIFICATE OF

CARL ROBANSKE
Certificate No. 409074B

OPP No. D14-06-053

FINAL ORDER OF SUSPENSION

UNDER THE AUTHORITY granted by the laws of the state of Washington, and after reviewing the file; conducting the “informal meeting” provided for in WAC 181-86-145; considering the evidence, the written submissions, and oral arguments of the parties; and considering the discussion and input provided by the Admissions and Professional Conduct Advisory Committee, the Superintendent of the Office of Public Instruction, through his designated Review Officer, Walt Bigby, enters this Order of Suspension based on the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

I. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On June 27, 2013, Carl Robanske, hereafter referred to as Mr. Robanske, was issued Washington Education Certificate, No. 409074B. That certificate currently remains valid.

Misconduct with Student

2. On or about May, 2014, on more than one occasion, Mr. Robanske instant messaged A.L., a female middle school student, after school hours and on weekends. The messages included some conversations with sexual innuendo.

a. On or about May, 2014, Mr. Robanske instant messaged A. L. a conversation about tattoos, and included a frontal picture of an adult male with his groin area covered in a Pinocchio tattoo.

CARL ROBANSKE
FINAL ORDER OF SUSPENSION

- b. On or about May 14, 2014, Mr. Robanske engaged A.L. in a game called “this or that”. He then mentioned sneakers or thong and then said, “I just read what I typed, I meant thong like sandals not the other one and hoe about u singing or you licking and biting me.....u licking and biting me”
 - c. On or about May 14, 2014, when A.L. asked Mr. Robanske if he was really getting a tattoo, he responded, “Ya, you want to see the back one or the dirty one”
3. On June 2, 2014, Mr. Robanske was advised of the allegations brought to the administrations attention regarding inappropriate communications with a Garrison student through his personal Facebook page. Mr. Robanske was placed on Administrative Leave with Pay.
4. On June 16, 2014, Mr. Robanske submitted a letter of resignation.
5. On March 24, 2015, Mr. Robanske participated in an interview with an OPP investigator in which he admitted he had initiated the instant messaging conversations with A.L. after he saw her on Facebook.
6. Mr. Robanske agreed to be evaluated by a psychologist to determine if he was safe to have unsupervised access to children. On August 7, 2015, Mr. Robanske was evaluated by Philip G. Barnard, Ph.D., DABPS. As a result of the testing/evaluation, Dr. Barnard determined;
 - a. “He appears to have little awareness of the inappropriateness of his behavior.”
 - b. “Mr. Robanske lacks insight into any of the unconscious or conscious motivations for his inappropriate behavior. He claims to understand that it was inappropriate, stating that he would not engage in that type of behavior in the future.”

c. Dr. Barnard stated, "If a person lacks insight in understanding both their unconscious and conscious motives, then there is an increased probability of that type of behavior reoccurring."

d. Dr. Barnard stated, " I cannot state at this time that Mr. Robanske does not present a risk to his students."

II. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Chapter 28A.410 RCW gives the Professional Educator Standards Board the authority to develop regulations determining eligibility for and certification of personnel employed in the common schools of the state of Washington. OSPI acts as the administrator of those statutes and regulations and has the authority to issue a reprimand, suspend, and revoke education certificates. RCW 28A.410.010. WAC chapter 181-86 and WAC chapter 181-87 further implement OPSI's authority.
2. OSPI has jurisdiction over Mr. Robanske and the subject matter discussed herein.
3. Mr. Robanske committed acts of unprofessional conduct by initiating communication with A.L., a female middle school student after school and on weekends for no educational purpose. The conversations were inappropriate and full of sexual innuendo, including an inappropriate photo of a male with a Pinocchio tattoo over his groin area; WAC181-86-013 (3).
4. There is clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Robanske committed unprofessional conduct. WAC 181-86-170 (Burden and Standard of Proof).
5. There is clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Robanske has a behavioral problem that endangers the educational welfare or personal safety of students, teachers, or other colleagues within the educational setting. WAC 181-86-013(3).

6. Eleven factors are to be considered to determine the appropriate level and range of educator discipline:

1. The seriousness of the act(s) and the actual or potential harm to persons or property;
2. The person's criminal history including the seriousness and amount of activity;
3. The age and maturity level of participant(s) at the time of the activity;
4. The proximity or remoteness of time in which the acts occurred;
5. Any activity that demonstrates a disregard for health, safety or welfare;
6. Any activity that demonstrates a behavioral problem;
7. Any activity that demonstrates a lack of fitness;
8. Any information submitted regarding discipline imposed by any governmental or private entity as a result of acts or omissions;
9. Any information submitted that demonstrates aggravating or mitigating circumstances;
10. Any information submitted to support character and fitness; and
11. Any other relevant information submitted.

7. Based on the foregoing facts and considering them in light of the eleven factors enumerated in WAC 181-86-080, and in light of WAC 181-86-013(3), and WAC 181-87-060, Mr. Robanske's education certificate should be suspended for unprofessional conduct.
