

MIGRANT EDUCATION PROGRAM

SERVICES MAY VARY, BUT ELIGIBILITY CAN INCLUDE ACCESS TO THE MIGRANT HEALTH PROGRAM OR THE NATIVE VOICES ARTS ACADEMY

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Washington State Title I, Part C Migrant Education Program is federally funded to ensure high-quality education programs and supplemental support services for migratory children; including American Indian and Alaska Native students, whose treaty-protected, migratory lifeways in seasonal locations for fishing and gathering are recognized.

ELIGIBILITY

- The child is not older than 21 years of age.
- The child made a qualifying move in the preceding 36 months as a migratory agricultural worker or migratory fisher, or did so with, or to join a parent/guardian or spouse who is a migratory agricultural worker or migratory fisher.
