

Call to Students:

Wake up! This is DeShawn Shead from YOUR Seattle Seahawks. Rise and shine. Let's get up and go to school! Don't be left behind on the sidelines! The future is all yours, all you have to do is show up."

Call to Parents:

Hey Parents! This is DeShawn Shead from YOUR Seattle Seahawks. I'm calling because your child missed school today. Did you know that a student who misses just two days of school each month is considered chronically absent? Every day counts. Don't let your child be left behind on the sidelines due to chronic absenteeism – Make sure you coach them to be in the game every day. Thank you and Go Hawks!
