

SAMPLE PUBLIC MEDIA RELEASE

Federal regulations require each institution participating in the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) issue a news release announcing sponsorship of the Program. The news release must be submitted to the local media for a possible free public announcement. If the media does not provide this free service, it is not required that the institution pay for the announcement. Submitting the announcement of Program participation will fulfill federal requirements. A copy of the news release submitted for publication must be attached to your CACFP application packet along with a list of the names and addresses of the media to whom the release was sent and the date sent.

The required news release provided below must be used by all institutions. Additional information may be included; however, the release must contain all of the information provided below:

Today _____ (name of institution) announced its sponsorship of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Child and Adult Care Food Program administered by the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI). Meals will be made available to enrolled children at no separate charge without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, age, or disability. Parental income determines the amount of money OSPI will reimburse institutions to provide meals to enrolled children. The monthly income-eligibility guidelines listed below are used to determine the reimbursement from OSPI.
