PURPOSE/ BACKGROUND

This notice provides information from the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI) for the Kip Tokuda Memorial Washington Civil Liberties Public Education Program. Applications for this competitive grant are now available on the OSPI Social Studies website. All proposals must be submitted through iGrants (Form Package 764) by 5:00 p.m. on January 16, 2018.

These competitive grants are intended to do one or both of the following:

1. Educate the public regarding the history and the lessons of the World War II exclusion, removal, and detention of persons of Japanese ancestry through the development, coordination, and distribution of new educational materials and the development of curriculum materials to complement and augment resources currently available on this subject matter.
2. Develop videos, plays, presentations, speaker bureaus, and exhibitions for presentation to elementary schools, secondary schools, community colleges, and to other interested parties.

ELIGIBILITY

The following groups or individuals are eligible to apply:

- 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations
- Colleges and universities
- Individuals (artists, educators, journalists, scholars, writers)
- Cultural institutions and community organizations
- Units of government (school districts, cities, counties, special districts)
- Consortia of any of the individuals or groups listed above. These partnerships may be among institutions of higher education, school districts, private schools, industry and business entities, and community organizations of all kinds.

The minimum request for a grant is $10,000. The maximum amount for each grant is $100,000.
