 There are many fulfillment partners for this contract, after determining which fulfillment partner you will be using, enter that vendor's name and SPIN in items 13 & 14*

 Because this contract will expire during the funding year, you will have to follow the State Replacement Contract Guidance if you plan to reference it.*

Details of this guidance can be found at:

<http://www.universalservice.org/sl/applicants/step04/state-replacement-contracts.aspx>

Alternately, if you are interested in purchasing data equipment and services and do not want to use the expiring contract, you may post your own Form 470, then select a service provider from among those that respond to your posting.

* An extension to the Nextel contract has not yet been signed, but it is DIS' intention to sign an extension; extending the current expiration date of 10/31/2011 to 10/31/2012. You may enter the 2012 expiration date on your Forms 471.

 New guidance from SLD now directs applicants to reference the date that they chose to purchase from the State Master Contract as the Contract Award Date.

REMEMBER THAT THE STATE MASTER CONTRACTS FOR CELLULAR SERVICES ARE OPTIONAL-USE CONVENIENCE CONTRACTS. WHILE A 470 WAS POSTED, MAKING THESE CONTRACTS ELIGIBLE FOR YOU TO USE, YOU WILL STILL NEED TO SHOW HOW YOU CHOSE A SPECIFIC VENDOR, AND ENSURE THAT PRICE WAS THE PRIMARY FACTOR IN YOUR DECISION.

In addition to the contracts listed here, which were entered into as a result of the posting of a Form 470, there is also a contract in place with T-Mobile. While there is not a state-posted Form 470 that can be referenced for this contract, you can post your own Form 470 and reference this (and other) State Master Contracts as a bid response.

The cellular contracts referenced in this section can be found at: <http://techmall.dis.wa.gov/mastercontracts/phones.aspx>
