Parent & Family Engagement Title I, Part A Programs

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

ESEA as Amended by Every Student Succeeds Act

- | The law uses the term “parent and family engagement,” rather than parental involvement.
- | The district must establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in its policy.
- | The district must carry out at least one of the following strategies to engage families effectively: professional development for school staff, which could include parents, and; home-based programs, information dissemination, collaboration with community organizations and other related activities.
- | Of the one percent of Title I, Part A funds mandated to fund family engagement, the school district now must send 90 percent of these funds directly to the school. In the ESEA, it was 95 percent.
- | Schools are permitted to establish a parent advisory board that represents families as staff develop and evaluate school policy.
