Parents, Your Involvement Helps Student Academic Success

Students with involved parents are more likely to get good grades, take classes that are more challenging, have better attendance, and graduate.

Types of Academic Support

Schools provide eligible students additional academic help. Here are four examples.

One-on-One Instruction
Small Group Instruction
Additional Help from School Staff
Extra Learning Supports

School Role

Identifies student academic need
Schools determine student academic need through state and local assessments.

Sets individualized academic goals
School staff evaluates student academic data and work together to set personalized academic goals.

Provide academic support
Schools give academic supports through a variety of strategies depending on the academic need of the student.

Help student reach academic goal
School staff monitors the academic progress of the student to make sure the student reaches his/her academic goal.

If needed, continue academic support
If student needs further academic support, the school staff will identify the academic need once again.

Engages Families
Schools communicate important information and involve families in program planning and evaluation.
