EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

BACKGROUND

Article 7 of the State Constitution and chapter 84.52 RCW give school districts authority to levy local property taxes. The voters of the school district must approve such levies. School district levies are of four fund types:

Excess general fund levies are one- to four-year levies used for day-to-day operations of the school. Such levies are also known as “maintenance and operation” (M&O) levies.

Debt service fund levies are multi-year levies used to pay principal and interest on general obligation bonds sold to finance school construction and remodeling. Voter approval of a bond issue authorizes the sale of bonds and the levy of taxes over the life of the bonds, which is often 15 to 30 years. Tax revenues are deposited in the debt service fund.

Transportation vehicle fund levies are one- or two-year levies used to pay for school buses or other school transportation needs.

Capital project fund levies are one- to six-year levies used to pay for school construction or remodeling.

School districts may run a levy for a particular fund only two times in a calendar year. Unsuccessful levies may be resubmitted in subsequent years.

Local effort assistance is state money paid to eligible districts to match excess general fund levies. These payments help school districts with above-average tax rates due to low property valuations.

LEVY HISTORY 1975–2013

Tables and graphs on pages 1–6 summarize school levy history since 1975. Tables 1–3 summarize excess general fund levies. Table 4 summarizes bond issue election results. Table 5 summarizes levy authority, rollbacks, and local effort assistance history.

Table 1 - The number of districts passing 2013 excess general fund levies increased by two, to 283 districts. Two districts tried but failed to pass a levy. The total dollar amount of approved levies is $2.185 billion.

Table 2 - The statewide average excess general fund levy rate per $1,000 increased from $2.54 the prior year to $2.74. The levy per student increased from $2,014 in the prior year to $2,089.

Table 3 - This table displays excess general fund levies as a percent of total school district revenues. The percent increased from 19.70 percent in 2011–12 to 19.91 percent in 2012–13.

Table 4 - Bond issue levy submissions and approvals increased from $1.174 billion in submissions the prior year to $1.267 billion and increased from $91 million in approvals the prior year to $614 million.

Table 5 - Levy authority increased 2.4 percent from $2.267 billion in the prior year to $2.322 billion. The number of districts eligible for local effort assistance (LEA) decreased by three to 223 and the eligible amount increased from $303 million to $307 million. The districts receiving LEA decreased by three to 212, and the amount received increased 1.7 percent from $296.7 million to $301.9 million.

LEVY ELECTION RESULTS

The Report 1463 series shows detailed election results for the four fund types.

Comments on Report 1463-GF

Report 1463-GF shows results of elections held in 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012 for excess general fund levies collectible in 2013.

Voter approval requires a majority of “yes” votes.

The number of districts submitting levies was 285. The number of districts with successful levies was 283. The number of districts not submitting an excess general fund levy to the voters was ten.

Levy election data for these reports came from county auditors’ reports. The tax rate shown in “dollars per thousand” was an estimate when the election was held. Actual tax rates are shown in Report 2010.

Comments on Report 1463-BI

Report 1463-BI shows the results of bond issue elections held in 2012. Voter approval of a bond issue permits the school district to issue general obligation bonds, which will be repaid by debt service fund levies made over the life of the bonds. For example, a bond issue approved in 2012 may result in debt service levies in calendar years 2013 through 2038.

Voter approval requires at least 60 percent “yes” votes and total votes of at least 40 percent of votes cast in the last general election.

Bond issues totaling $1.267 billion were submitted and $614 million (48 percent) received voter approval. Of the 16 districts submitting bond issues, 11 districts (69 percent) were successful.

Comments on Report 1463-TVF

Report 1463-TVF shows the results of transportation vehicle fund levy elections held in 2012.

Transportation vehicle fund levies are deposited in the transportation vehicle fund and used for purchase and repair of pupil transportation vehicles (mostly school buses). Voter approval requires a majority of “yes” votes.

In 2012, one district submitted and passed a transportation vehicle fund levy totaling $3 million.

Comments on Report 1463-CP

Report 1463-CP shows the results of capital project levy elections held in 2012 for collection in 2013 through 2018.

Capital project levies must be used for construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities. Capital project levies for up to six years may be approved at a single election. Voter approval requires a majority of “yes” votes.

In 2012, 38 districts submitted capital project levies totaling $332 million. Thirty-five districts passed levies totaling $254 million for collection in 2013 through 2018.

ACTUAL 2013 LEVIES BY FUND

Report 2010 shows actual tax rates and levy amounts certified for collection in 2013 for all four types of levies. The state average and highest tax rates are as follows:

	Total	General Fund	Debt Service	Transport. Vehicle	Capital Projects
Average Tax Rate ($/1,000)	$4.44	$2.74	$1.36	$0.00	$0.34
Highest Tax Rate ($/1,000)	$9.52	$7.58	$4.36	$0.26	$2.50

The tax rates shown on this report are actual rates used by county assessors as reported to the Department of Revenue. Certified levy amounts are those certified to county commissioners in the fall of 2012 for collection in calendar year 2013.

Total excess general fund levies certified for collections in 2013 are $100 million less than the amount approved by voters as shown in Report 1463-GF. Differences are shown by district on attached Report 2030. Most of the difference is due to the levy lid that limits the dollar amount of general fund levies.

Tax rates and certified levy amounts for debt service levies are those calculated by county assessors for collection in 2013 for payment of principal and interest on outstanding bonds. Certified 2013 debt service fund levies include levies approved by voters prior to 2012 as well as those shown in Report 1463-BI.

SUPPLEMENTAL EXCESS GENERAL FUND LEVY INFORMATION

Comments on Report 1061

Report 1061 shows assessed valuations and tax rates for 2013 excess general fund levies as reported by county assessors to the Department of Revenue (DOR).<sup>1</sup> Certified levy amounts were reported to the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI) by educational service districts (ESDs). Additional columns provide analysis of levy valuations and certified levies per full-time equivalent (FTE) student.

Comments on Report 2030

Report 2030 shows how the levy lid law (RCW 84.52.0531) affected 2013 levy collections. Fifty-six districts had to reduce or “rollback” 2013 levies by a total of $95.6 million due to the levy lid. Five districts voluntarily rolled back their levy by an additional $4.3 million.

The middle two columns on Report 2030 show each school district’s levy authority percent and actual levy percent. The levy authority percent for 205 districts is 28 percent. There are 90 districts that have been grandfathered at a levy authority between 28 and 38 percent.

The actual levy percent is calculated by adding the district’s certified levy and LEA allocation and dividing the result by the district’s levy base (adjusted for transfers). About 99 percent of all students reside in school districts levying 10 percent or more of their levy base. About 91 percent of all students reside in school districts levying more than 20 percent of their levy base. About 39 percent of all students reside in school districts levying more than 28 percent of their levy base.

Report 2030 also shows 2013 local effort assistance. LEA, also known as levy equalization, is state matching money paid to eligible districts. To be eligible, a district must have a tax rate for a hypothetical 14 percent levy in excess of the statewide average 14 percent levy rate. (This rate is $1.477/1,000 in 2013.) In determining 14 percent levy rates, assessed values are adjusted to 100 percent of market value using the county-indicated ratios determined by the DOR. The last column on Report 2030 shows each district's 14 percent levy rate. For the 2013 calendar year, local effort assistance allocations are funded at 100 percent of the formula amount.

Of the state's 295 school districts as of the 2012–13 school year, 223 are eligible for LEA in 2013. Of the 223 eligible districts, 198 receive the maximum LEA. Fourteen eligible districts assessed less than $1.477/1,000 and therefore qualify for only a portion of the maximum possible matching money. Eleven eligible districts did not pass an excess general fund levy and therefore receive no LEA.

NOTES: In the columns labeled FIRST SUBMISSIONS and SECOND SUBMISSIONS, a district submitting multiple bond issues at the same election may be counted as both voter approved and failed.

In the columns labeled TOTAL APPROVED, a district with both approved and failed submissions is counted as approved.

In the columns labeled TOTAL FAILED, a district with both successful and failed submissions is not included in the number of districts; however, the district's failed submissions are included in the dollar amount of failed submissions (column $$$).

Election results are those reported to OSPI by county auditors.

NOTES: Levy authority is the maximum excess general fund levy permitted by RCW 84.52.0531, the Levy Lid Law. The levy authority maximum rate was reduced by two percentage points for 1998 levies. This accounts for the reduction in levy authority for 1998.

Levy rollbacks occur when a district collects less than voters have approved.

Local effort assistance (LEA) is state matching money paid on levies in districts with high tax rates due to low assessed valuations. Districts eligible to receive LEA money must pass a levy in order to receive LEA money. LEA began in 1989 and was only partially funded that year.

- 1/ All dollar amounts are based on the amount of the levies submitted to the voters. The amount certified to the county commissioners for collection may be a lesser amount.
  - 2/ Based upon resident full-time equivalent (FTE) students for 2011–2012.
  - 3/ Includes districts that failed in their first attempt and did not make a second attempt.
  - 4/ Dollar amount is the highest amount submitted.
  - 5/ Districts submitting multiple issues may be shown here both as successes and failures.
  - 6/ Additional levies are levies that are in addition to an existing approved levy.

Actual levy percentages equal actual excess general fund levies plus LEA allocations as a percent of the levy base adjusted for nonresident transfers.

Levy authority is the maximum excess general fund levy permitted by RCW 84.52.0531, the Levy Lid Law.

Levy rollbacks occur when a district collects less than voters have approved.

Local effort assistance (LEA) is state matching money paid on levies in districts with high tax rates due to low assessed valuations.

* Resident students are 2011–2012 annual average full-time equivalent (FTE) students. High school students residing in nonhigh school districts and students enrolled in interdistrict cooperatives are included in the enrollment of the district in which they reside and are not included in the enrollment of the district in which they are served.
