Mentoring

- 1. Purpose: This funding was provided to contract with nonprofits to provide one-to-one mentoring to students by volunteers. Contractors must provide coaching to mentor, parents and students.
- 2. Description of services provided: Funding was used to provide mentoring supports for students. In addition to direct mentoring, monthly coaching was required for mentors, students and parents. Funding was used by mentoring providers to recruit, train, match and support mentor/mentee matches.
- 3. Criteria for receiving services and/or grants: Successful contractors must be nonprofits with experience providing one-to-one mentoring for students. For the 2018–19 school year, those contractors were: Big Brothers Big Sisters of Washington State, including Southwest Washington, Puget Sound, and Everett.
