

CANOE, CANOE,

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

BY JEROME M. JAINGA

ILLUSTRATED BY JEFFREY NOEL JAINGA

© 2002

This book was developed by the Northwest Native American Curriculum Project, sponsored by The Evergreen Center for Educational Improvement at The Evergreen State College and the Office of Indian Education at the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The project was partially funded by the Washington State Higher Education Coordinating Board.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR AND ILLUSTRATOR

Jerome M. Jainga- Tsimshian

In addition to being a cultural specialist for the Suquamish Tribe, Jerome Jainga works for the Marion Forsman-Boushie Early Learning Center. He designs culturally appropriate curriculum and programs for young people ages 3-12. He manages the educational delivery of the Lushootseed Language and acts as an advocate for Native American Education. He holds an Associate's degree in Pastry/Foods from South Seattle Community College and is currently working towards a Bachelors/ Masters in Human Development and Native Studies from Pacific Oaks College. Mr. Jainga is also active in the Puget Salish Language Council, the Native Curriculum Development Team and Washington State OSPI.

Jeffery Noel Jainga- Tsimshian

Mr. Jainga is a cartoonist, illustrator, videographer, editor and screenwriter. He has attended Seattle Central Community College's Advertising Art Program and DeAnza College in California for filmmaking. He has studied traditional Native Arts with David Boxley (Tsimshian Eagle), learning Alaskan Tsimshian 2-D design, mask and spoon carving and bentwood box construction. He worked for four years as a TV news camera soundperson at KOMO TV, for five years at LSI Logic Corporation editing, writing and producing video. He also took traditional native drum making classes with Mike Dangeli of Northwind Native Arts.

I can take you to many places, within me and within you.

Older man and woman are on the beach next to painted canoe. She sits on a log, next to a large a salmon on woven mat. The man stands looking down at fish. There are canoes in background. Tulalip Indian Reservation, Washington, 1907.

MSCUA, University of Washington Libraries NA729

Canoe, canoe! What can you do?

I want you to remember to look beyond my bowfront.

Canoe, canoe! What can you do?

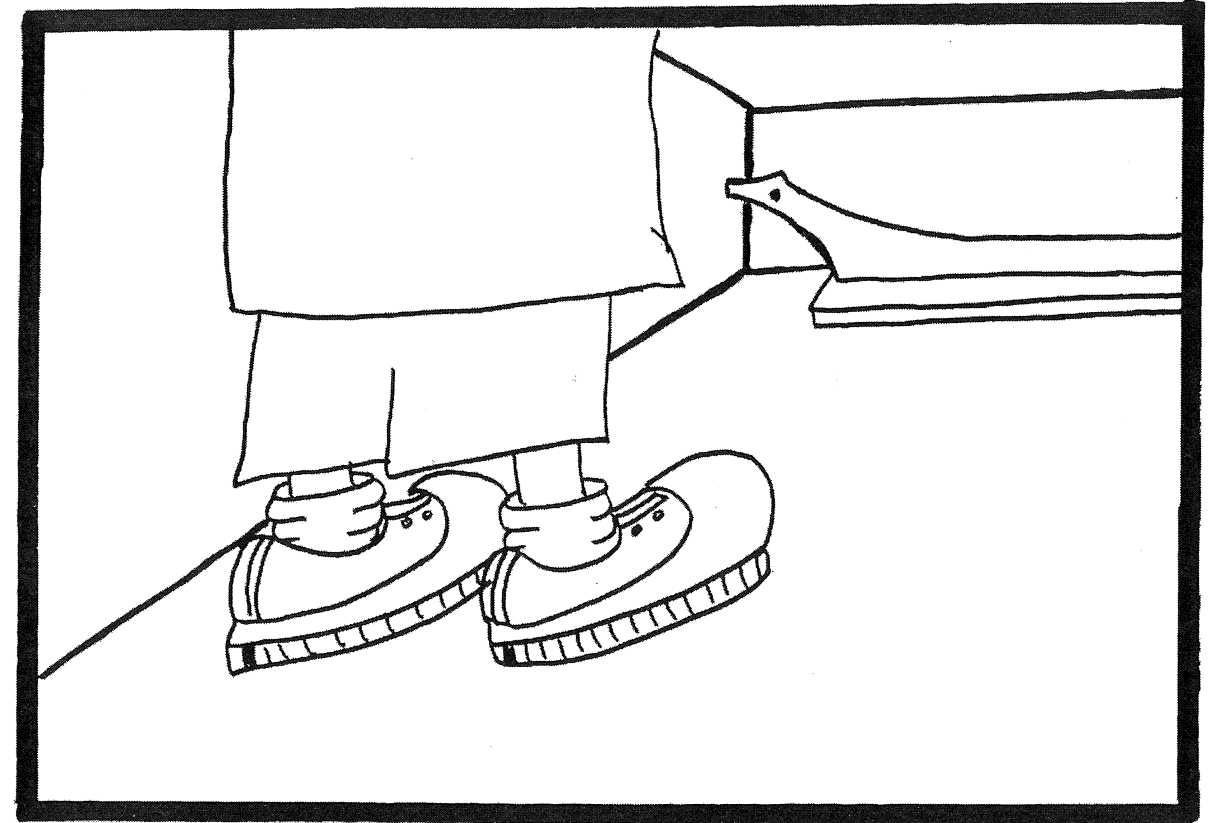

I can take you to many places, old and new.

Canoe, canoe! What do you want?

I know all the things that happened since the days of long ago.

Canoe, canoe! What can you feel?

I can feel the cold waters and the warmth of your heels.

Canoe, canoe! What do you know?

I see the paddles dipping to move you and me.

Canoe, canoe! What can you hear?

I can hear the water swishing as the steersman steers.

Canoe, canoe! What can you see?