Statutes authorizing the agency to adopt rules on this subject: RCW 28A.300.575 Reasons why rules on this subject may be needed and what they might accomplish: OSPI is considering rulemaking concerning the Seal of Biliteracy (the Seal) to establish multiple levels of the Seal. Currently, the proficiency level to earn the Seal is ACTFL* Intermediate Mid. With Dual Language Education programs producing students with higher levels of proficiency, a multi-level Seal can encourage students to continue with language learning beyond the Intermediate Mid level. A multi-level Seal may encourage students to take additional languages after the requirements for the first language are met. Offering multiple levels of the Seal would put Washington on par with other states that offer multi-level Seal programs. *ACTFL is the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages Identify other federal and state agencies that regulate this subject and the process coordinating the rule with these	A management of Communication of Dublic Instruction (OCE	M()
