On February 12, 1974, Federal Judge George Boldt issues an historic ruling reaffirming the rights of Washington's Indian tribes to fish in accustomed places. The "Boldt Decision" allocates 50 percent of the annual catch to treaty tribes.

Question: What perspective will each group bring to this discussion?