WSAC’s Mission

We advance educational opportunities and attainment in Washington State.

- Policy and research
- Savings and financial aid programs
- Access and support programs
- Consumer protection
Strategic framework to bolster equity-focused solutions

Guided by our Council, WSAC’s strategic plan addresses key challenges with data-driven, equity-focused, cross-sector solutions.

Everyone needs some kind of education beyond high school.

Affordability  >  Enrollment  >  Equity  >  Completion  >  Student Supports

If we build an affordable and supportive educational environment, more Washingtonians will enroll in programs and complete credentials.
All students prepared for post-secondary pathways, careers and civic engagement

OSPIs MISSION is to “transform K-12 education to a system that is centered on closing opportunity gaps and is characterized by high expectations for all students and educators. We achieve this by developing equity-based policies and supports that empower educators, families and communities.”
Each student, family, and community possess strengths and cultural knowledge that benefit their peers, educators, and schools.

Ensuring Educational Equity Goes Beyond Equality

• requires education leaders to examine the ways current policies and practices result in disparate outcomes for our:
  • Students of color
  • Students living in poverty
  • Students receiving special education
  • Students receiving English Learner services
  • Students who identify as LGBTQ+
  • Highly mobile student populations

Inclusion & Reimagining

• requires education leaders to develop an understanding of historical contexts;
• engage students, families, and community representatives as partners in decision-making;
• actively dismantle systemic barriers
• replacing them with policies and practices that ensure all students have access to the instruction and support they need to succeed in our schools
We acknowledge the pain and trauma resulting from 400 years of racism in the United States.

We stand with our communities of color and all communities that have been, and continue to be, marginalized in our society and in our education system.

It is critical that we acknowledge and change the systems that perpetuate racism and other barriers to equity in our society. Education is only one of those systems.

Until we are no longer able to predict a student’s outcome in public education based on their race, we have not accomplished our goal of racial equity in education.

If you wish to share a reflection, please use the chat box to impart your thoughts, feelings, and resources. The more we know, the better we can do. And we MUST do better.

We invite and appreciate your accountability and partnership in this work.

- March 10-11: Board discussion and adoption of emergency rules
- Mid-March: District application launches
- March 19: Emergency rules take effect

Permanent Rules for Subsequent Classes
- May 13: Board extension of emergency rules
- June 22: Tentative public hearing date
- July 15: Board discussion and adoption of final permanent rules
- Mid-Late Aug.: Permanent rules take effect

Rule Feedback Opportunities:
- Via sbe@k12.wa.us
- Public hearing updates posted at SBE rulemaking webpage
EHB 1121: Concerning the Emergency Waiver of Certain Graduation Requirements

- Directs SBE to adopt rules for the 2020-21 emergency waiver program
  - Limitations on what can be waived
  - District application for authority to waive requirements for individual students
  - District responsibilities for communicating with students and families
  - Student eligibility criteria
  - Equitable administration, records, and reporting

- School districts apply to the State Board of Education (SBE) for the authority to grant emergency waivers

Permits the waiver of credits and graduation pathway requirements, as a last resort for helping students graduate.
EHB 1121: Compared to Last Year’s Emergency Waiver Program

Similarities:
- School districts apply to the SBE for the authority to grant emergency waivers
- Good faith effort
- District responsibilities for communicating with students and families
- Equitable administration, records, and reporting
- More reporting is required this year

Differences:
- Eligibility criteria for students
  - 2020: On-track to graduate
  - 2021:
    1.) Reasonably expected to graduate, AND
    2.) Student Demonstration of Postsecondary Preparation
- Limitations on what credits can be waived

Permits the waiver of credits and graduation pathway requirements, as a last resort for helping students graduate
What Can Be Waived with the 2020-21 GREW?

- 2 credits
  - May be ‘flexible’ credits or ‘core’ credits
  - No more than 1.0 credit in any core subject area
- Graduation pathway options

Before use of this waiver, districts should consider using their existing authority to waive local graduation requirements, the 2-credit waiver of flexible credits for individual student circumstances, and flexibility in the PE and Washington State History.
District Application

- Districts must certify:
  - Equitable administration of GREW
  - Good faith effort to help individual students meet graduation requirements prior to granting a waiver
  - Maintain records and report data
  - Adopt a resolution of a written plan describing the process for granting and declining waivers
    - A panel of at least one school counselor and educators with appropriate expertise must review any decisions to decline a waiver
  - Culturally responsive ways of communicating with students and families

Good faith effort:
- Individual student advising
- Academic supports
- Mastery-based learning
- More examples in WAC 180-111-020
District Responsibility for Communication

The district must consult with the student to advise:

- A waiver of only those credits that are least applicable to the student’s postsecondary plans
- The potential benefits and limitations that could result from receiving the waiver
- Options for the individual student to decline the waiver

Limitation considerations may include:
- College Academic Distribution Requirements (CADR)
- preparation for intended majors
- college course placement
- employment eligibility and readiness
Student Eligibility for the Waiver

- Reasonably expected to graduate this school year (WAC 180-111-020(5))
- Demonstrated postsecondary preparation for their next steps as identified in their High School and Beyond Plan
- Experienced a significant disruption to their ability to complete graduation requirements due to the emergency

Demonstration of Postsecondary Preparation:
- Complete a graduation pathway option
- Earn college credit
- CTE preparatory course
- More examples in WAC 180-111-020
Districts will examine data for disproportionality. If disproportionality is found, the school district will take appropriate action to ensure equitable administration.

Strategies

Summarize Key Tasks. Distribute a summary of key tasks for college-going students to complete during the summer.

Set realistic expectations. Accurate and timely information is shared with students and families about expected knowledge, attitudes, and behaviors that are needed to be successful in college.

Support the transition. Strongly encourage your college bound students to participate in summer bridge programs and first year experiences. Connect your special population students directly to on-campus supports.

→ Trio SSS is a support program offered at many WA colleges that provides services to foster college success.

→ CAMP can be beneficial to migrant students

→ Passport to Careers supports foster care alumni

Post-High School Planning & Support
For Graduates of (INSERT NAME) High School

Congratulations!
Graduating from high school is a really big deal. You have worked hard, studied hard, and completed a major life milestone.

Top Tips for Recent Grads

- If your post-high school program sends you a mailing or an email, READ IT! They won’t send you information you don’t need. Don’t risk missing out on important deadlines, paperwork, or details because you didn’t read your mail.
- Use your voice! Don’t be afraid to advocate for yourself. If you need help, ask for it. If you don’t understand something, speak up. You will need to be your own champion, so speak up for yourself.
- Ask as many questions as you need to until you get answers. There are so many new experiences after high school, especially if you’ve also left home. If the resources on this webpage aren’t quite right to answer your questions, don’t be afraid to ask your boss, professor, peers, landlord, parents, etc. This goes for classes, financial aid information, banks, and just about anything else.
- Many of your friends and peers feel just like you. Confused? Homeless? Worried? Leaving high school is a big life transition. Chances are most of the others in your post-high school program feel the same way. Reach out to others through clubs or other social or organized activities. Before you start, check to see if your program has a social media account. It can be a great way to meet and connect with peers.

Post-High School College Transition Resources

- Graduate Handbook: Next Steps for First-Year Students. Learn about critical next steps. Find information on resources and support, registration, tips for commuters, common stages in the first year, strategies for students planning to transfer, and financial aid.
- A Family Guide: Supporting Your Child After High School. Learn how to help your child be successful in college. (Available in Arabic, Chichewa, Marshallese, Russian, Somali, Spanish, and Vietnamese.)
- Did Your Financial Circumstances Change? You might be experiencing a change in income from what you reported on the financial aid application or what your previous year’s taxes reflected. You will need to connect with the financial aid department of the college where you applied. SwiftStudent is a free tool that helps students understand appeals and provides templates for writing a financial aid appeal letter. This tool does not share user data with third parties.
Supporting Seniors’ Transition: Graduation Decisions

Senior was....
✓ “reasonably expected to graduate”
✓ impacted by significant disruption to their education

School made....
“good faith effort” to help student meet at least min. state graduation requirements

Senior is advised about
1.) pros/cons to using a GREW,
2.) remaining credits and any grad pathway options needed for post-HS plan, and
3.) ability to stay at HS longer

Senior can “demonstrate postsecondary readiness” and finished needed credits/grad pathway(s) for next step

Senior decides to use summer or 2021-22 school year to finish needed preparation

Senior uses GREW for credit(s) and/or Graduation Pathway(s)
