Dig Deep

To be an effective citizen, you need to know how to use evidence from different sources. Using artifacts and primary sources as evidence, you will draw conclusions about a historical question you have been studying in your classroom.

Your Task

In a written essay or presentation, you will:

- Develop a question to guide an investigation of a time period, after looking at primary sources.
- Draw one or more conclusions about the question, referencing two or more primary sources.
- List two or more sources, including the title, author, and date of each source.

You will also:

- Develop either a timeline, or a description of the time period that includes three or more events or details.

Structure

- Introduce your topic.
- State your conclusion.
- Provide analysis of primary sources.
- Provide evidence to support your conclusion.
- Provide a concluding statement.
- Include a bibliography/list of works cited.
