

Causes of Conflict

A conflict can have many causes. To avoid and resolve conflicts, it helps to understand these causes. You will develop a position in which you explain the causes of a conflict.

Your Task

In a cohesive paper or presentation, you will:

- State a claim regarding the main causes of the conflict.
- Provide background on the conflict by describing at least three of the following:
 - Who was involved in the conflict.
 - What the conflict was.
 - When the conflict took place.
 - Where the conflict took place.
- Provide background on the causes of the conflict by explaining two or more factors that helped cause the conflict.
- Provide reasons for your claim, including one of the following:
 - An analysis of how the conflict might not have occurred had one or more of the main causal factors been absent.
 - An evaluation of why at least one factor is more important than the others.
- Refer explicitly in the paper or presentation to three or more credible sources that provide relevant information:
 - Cite your sources when you draw information from them: for instance, when you summarize, paraphrase, or quote, and when you refer to facts, figures, and ideas.
 - Provide complete publication information for each source in your bibliography or list of works cited.
