Title I, Part A Program
Extra Academic Support(s) for Your Student

Title I, Part A is a federal program that provides additional instructional services and activities. These additional supports help students in meeting the challenging state academic standards and closing the educational opportunity gap.

Parents, Your Involvement Helps Student Academic Success

Students with involved parents are more likely to get good grades, take classes that are more challenging, have better attendance, and graduate.

Types of Academic Support
Schools provide eligible students additional academic help. Here are four examples.

- One-on-One Instruction
- Small Group Instruction
- Additional Help from School Staff
- Extra Learning Supports

School Role
Identifies student academic need
Schools determine student academic need through state and local assessments.

Sets individualized academic goals
School staff evaluates student academic data and work together to set personalized academic goals.

Provide academic support
Schools give academic supports through a variety of strategies depending on the academic need of the student.

Help student reach academic goal
School staff monitors the academic progress of the student to make sure the student reaches his/her academic goal.

If needed, continue academic support
If student needs further academic support, the school staff will identify the academic need once again.

Engages Families
Schools communicate important information and involve families in program planning and evaluation.

Family Role
Become familiar with the programs
Learn about program services and activities.

Get involved
Attend and participate in district/school meetings.

Stay connected
Keep on-going communication with program staff about your student’s academic progress.

Communicate academic goals
Monitor your student’s progress reports and contact your school about any academic concerns or goals.

Give feedback
Share your ideas or recommendations to improve services for your student, family, and the greater community.

To learn more about services in your school contact:

July 2018