Introduction

Washington State public high schools that serve students who are attempting high school credit are required to use the Washington State Standardized High School Transcript (RCW 28A.230.125). This guide provides the specifications for the standardized transcript for students with a Graduation Requirements Year of 2020 and beyond. This guide is only intended for public schools that fall under the supervision of The Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. Home schools and private schools are not required to follow the same transcript regulations.

In the 2019 legislative session, House Bill (HB) 1599 was passed making several important changes to the Additional State Requirements captured on the Washington State Standardized High School Transcript.

Students with a Graduation Requirements Year prior to 2020 must be provided with a standardized transcript as provided in the High School Transcript Developer User Guide for Graduation Requirement Years Prior to 2020.

This guide has been updated with these changes in order to provide clear guidance to school districts in implementing high school transcript reporting requirements. In addition, this guide is intended to assist the design work and development necessary to produce a successful production of Washington State Standardized High School Transcripts.
Conventions of this guide:

Items found in parentheses () are implied information. Explicit headings or descriptors for the data element that is enclosed in parentheses are thought to be unnecessary.

In formatting, the use of ellipsis in describing a data element’s format indicates that the data type is of variable length from 1 to the maximum length of field.

For example:

X… would be the format for SCHOOL NAME where the school’s name could be of one or more characters.
2 Layout

The transcript document has three primary sections; a header, a body and a footer.

An overall theme to the layout is that if a data element does not apply to a student, the data element and associated headings for the data element should not be printed. For example, students who have earned a CAA or a CIA should only have one or the other of the CAA/CIA determinations printed on the transcript, and students who have not earned either should not have either determination printed on the transcript (see the data element sections for these two elements for more information).

Fonts:

The target font to layout the document for variable data is Courier®.

The target font to layout the document for form data is Arial®.

These fonts were chosen to accommodate both laser printers and line printers, keeping the look and feel of the document relatively the same regardless of the print technology used to produce the document.

Please note: Due to variations in printer technologies some size parameters provided within this guide are approximations. Where data element size can be approximated these elements will be so indicated. Data elements that are fixed in size will be indicated only by the absolute size of the element.
Type Case:

The variable data stream elements found in this document have type case parameters. In general, for headings of sections and subsections the type case is all upper case, heading elements within sections or subsections are of mixed case (first character of each word or word abbreviation is upper case and the rest of the word or word abbreviation is lower case), all upper case is used for non-heading data (e.g., the actual student’s legal name would be in all upper case).

Paper Stock:

Transcript paper must be white in color and 8.5x11 inches in size.

There is no requirement to use ‘secure paper’ when producing printed transcripts.

The recommended minimum paper specification is as follows:

- 20lb
- 8.5x11 inches
- 84 brightness
- White
- Standard Business paper

Shading:

The color of the shaded areas should be gray. There is no specification for the degree of shading on the printed document for areas that are shaded on the form. It is recommended that the degree of shading be kept very light. This recommendation is to address the possible business need to FAX a transcript without having the information in the shaded area turn to black by some FAX machines.
2.1 Header

The header section of the Washington State Standardized High School Transcript is comprised of STUDENT INFORMATION, SCHOOL OF RECORD information and administrative information.

Data Type: Character
Length: 24
Number of Lines: 1...

Format: ... X...X ...

Description: This section’s variable data is composed of, at a minimum, one record, and is limited only by the total number of schools attended by the student.

Business Rules: All schools where high school credit was attempted or earned shall be listed in this section. For example, if the student attended four schools where they attempted high school credit, there would be four records in this section. This is not restricted to high schools; any school where high school credit was attempted shall be listed, including middle schools or other schools where high school level courses are offered and high school credit may be attempted.

This section should be found only on the first page of a multi-page transcript.

This section is a single column of data different from the section and subsections that follow in the body of the document. The schools attended should be listed chronologically by entry date, oldest entry date first. If a single school is attended at two different points of time, then the school will be listed here twice with the corresponding entry dates.

------------------------------- STUDENTS RECORD -------------------------------
2.2.3 ACADEMIC RECORD

Data Type: Character Length: approx. 105 Number of Lines: 1

Format: *...X*X...*

Description: The student's academic history for all high school level courses attempted. This section includes all courses in which high school credit was attempted. Courses from which students have withdrawn must be reported as well as completed courses.

Business Rules: This sub-section is grouped by reporting period, oldest reporting period first, where reporting period is reported as the last month and year of the reporting period. For example, if a school is using semesters for their reporting period there would be two groups of records per year for the regular school year (this would not include a summer school reporting period). Each group would have an associated month and year for each semester with the grade level the student was assigned at the time of the reporting period. Each group would be followed by the course information pertinent to that group’s records.

Notes:

Example:

 ACADEMIC RECORD **************************************************
2.2.3.1 State Crs Code

Data Type: Character

Length: 6

Number of Lines: 1

Format: #######

Description: The state course code for the course in which credit was attempted.

Business Rules: The state course code must be included for transfer courses if it can be determined.

Notes:

Example: 01054 or 05110

Notes: If your particular student information system uses more than 6 characters for course codes then you will need to shorten the course descriptions (see next data element) to allow room to display the longer course codes. The number of characters by which the course code exceeds the length of 6 is the number of characters that the description will need to be shortened.

Example: ENG879
2.2.3.3 Description

Data Type: Character Length: 20 Number of Lines: 1

Format: XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Description: The district course description for the course in which credit was attempted.

Business Rules:

Notes: If the previous data element, Dist Course Code, is longer than 6 characters, this element, Description, will need to be adjusted (shortened) to accommodate the additional space needed for the Dist Course Code element.

If additional room is needed for the Description, the Description may be continued on the line below as long as it is in the same placement/column as the first line. Although this will make the transcript longer, this will maintain the standard format of the transcript.

College in the High School (CHS) courses must provide the college’s curriculum abbreviation and course number that identifies the College in the High School approved course as a college course.

Example: MATH204 or ENGL101.

If the course is co-delivered the CHS course title must first provide the college’s curriculum abbreviation and course number followed by as much of the other course title as can fit.

Example: ENGL&101 AP Eng Lit. or MATH204 IB Mathe HL
Or
Example: ENGL101& AP English Lit
    [AP Eng Lit]

AP and IB courses must include the official AP or IB course title or abbreviation. This allows receiving institutions to determine the specific AP or IB course. If districts wish to also display their chosen course title, the district may include the official AP or IB course title/abbreviation in brackets either before or after the district course title. For more information on approved and acceptable official AP course title abbreviations, go to AP Courses and Exams. Approved AP and IB course titles are available in Appendix Q of the CEDARS Manual.

Data Type: Minimum Decimal Length: 3,2, Maximum Decimal Length: 3,3 Number of Lines: 1

Format: #.##

Description: The credits earned for the course in which credit was attempted.

Business Rules: All courses where the letter grade is from the GRADE POINT TABLE shall be included in the calculation of the GPA except if the student has retaken the course for grade improvement. In this case, the replaced course will have 0.00 Credit Earn, the grade may or may not be a passing grade (e.g., ‘D’), and that course will not be included in the calculation. Courses with grades found in the NOT TO BE USED IN GPA table may have credits earned, but are not included in the GPA calculation.

Description: The total GPA points for the reporting period.

Business Rules: Courses that have marks that are not included in the grade point table (e.g., the mark of ‘P’ – pass) shall be excluded from this data element and the GPA calculations. Exclude courses with non-numerical marks/grades such as P/N, CR/NC, S/U, and W. Courses with letter grades that have been replaced because the student retook the course for the purposes of grade improvement shall be excluded from this data element and the GPA calculations.

Multiply the numerical value (Grade Reporting and Calculation Scale) of each letter grade earned by the number of credits attempted for the course. Then sum.

Total Sum of each (Letter Grade Point x Credits Attempted)
Notes: If a student attempted six .5 credit classes in a reporting period, one of the classes was retaken later, and in another class a ‘P’ (pass) grade was received, only four of the courses would be included.
