1 Introduction

Washington State public high schools that serve students who are attempting high school credit are required to use the Washington State Standardized High School Transcript. This guide provides the specifications for the standardized transcript, and this guide is only intended for public schools that fall under the supervision of The Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. Home schools and private schools are not required to follow the same transcript regulations.

The Washington State Standardized High School Transcript underwent a major revision in October 2004, effective fall 2005. That revision included significant changes made to both the content and layout of the document. The revisions of October 2004 were documented in Version 1.0 of this guide.

Since that time, the October 2004 new requirement to post WASL scores on the high school transcript was subsequently deleted during the 2006 legislative session (ESSB 6475). This change was to be implemented no later than June 2007.

In the 2007 legislative session, two additional changes to the High School Transcript were signed into law. First, the ownership of the transcript rules has transferred from the State Board of Education to that of the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. Second, changes to the requirements for a Certificate of Academic Achievement and for a Certificate of Individual Achievement necessitate additional clarification to the documentation of transcript entries.

In November 2010, a High School Transcript Advisory Committee was formed to evaluate and make recommendations regarding the High School Transcript. This committee consisted of representatives of OSPI, State Board of Education, Office of the Attorney General, institutions of higher education, and school districts. Based on the recommendations of this committee and public input, the transcript was revised to include the graduation requirements year, state course codes, Washington State History in the “Additional State Requirements” section, additional course designation codes, and a new “Additional District Requirements” section that is optional for districts to use. The new transcript formats, elements, and values are required for all high school student transcripts starting in the 2012–13 school year; however, the content in the “Additional State Requirements” section is still based on the student’s graduation requirement year. These changes are to be implemented no later than December 31, 2012.

It is with these changes that this guide has been updated in order to provide clear guidance to the rules that districts may follow in implementing high school transcript reporting requirements. In addition, this guide is intended to assist the design work and development necessary to produce a successful production of Washington State Standardized High School Transcripts.
Conventions of this guide:

Items found in parentheses () are implied information. Explicit headings or descriptors for the data element that is enclosed in parentheses are thought to be unnecessary.

In formatting, the use of ellipsis in describing a data element’s format indicates that the data type is of variable length from 1 to the maximum length of field.

For example:

X... would be the format for SCHOOL NAME where the school’s name could be of one or more characters.
2 Layout

The transcript document has three primary sections; a header, a body and a footer.

An overall theme to the layout is that if a data element does not apply to a student, the data element and associated headings for the data element should not be printed. For example, students who have earned a CAA or a CIA should only have one or the other of the CAA/CIA determinations printed on the transcript, and students who have not earned either should not have either determination printed on the transcript (see the data element sections for these two elements for more information).

Fonts:

The target font to layout the document for variable data is Courier®.

The target font to layout the document for form data is Arial®.

These fonts were chosen to accommodate both laser printers and line printers, keeping the look and feel of the document relatively the same regardless of the print technology used to produce the document.

Please note: Due to variations in printer technologies some size parameters provided within this guide are approximations. Where data element size can be approximated these elements will be so indicated. Data elements that are fixed in size will be indicated only by the absolute size of the element.
Type Case:

The variable data stream elements found in this document have type case parameters. In general, for headings of sections and subsections the type case is all upper case, heading elements within sections or subsections are of mixed case (first character of each word or word abbreviation is upper case and the rest of the word or word abbreviation is lower case), all upper case is used for non-heading data (e.g., the actual student’s legal name would be in all upper case).

Paper Stock:

Transcript paper must be white in color and 8.5x11 inches in size.

There is no requirement to use ‘secure paper’ when producing printed transcripts.

The recommended minimum paper specification is as follows:

- 20lb
- 8.5x11 inches
- 84 brightness
- White
- Standard Business paper

Shading:

The color of the shaded areas should be gray. There is no specification for the degree of shading on the printed document for areas that are shaded on the form. It is recommended that the degree of shading be kept very light. This recommendation is to address the possible business need to FAX a transcript without having the information in the shaded area turn to black by some FAX machines.
2.1 Header

The header section of the Washington State Standardized High School Transcript is comprised of STUDENT INFORMATION, SCHOOL OF RECORD information and administrative information.

2.2 Body

The Body of the Washington State Standardized High School Transcript is composed of two sections.

The first is the SCHOOLS ATTENDED section.

This section has a heading of the following format:

 SCHOOLS ATTENDED ***

The second is the (ACADEMIC RECORD, REPORT PERIOD AND CUMULATIVE SUMMARY, ADDITIONAL STATE REQUIREMENTS, and optional ADDITIONAL DISTRICT REQUIREMENTS) section; this section is composed of two columns.

There are several sub-sections in this section each having its own heading of the following format:

* ... * HEADING * ... *

Reporting period is used throughout this section and should be reported as the last month and year of the reporting period.
2.2.1 SCHOOLS ATTENDED

Data Type: Character  Length: 24  Number of Lines: 1...

Format: ... X...X ...

Description: This section’s variable data is composed of, at a minimum, one record, and is limited only by the total number of schools attended by the student.

Business Rules: All schools where high school credit was attempted or earned shall be listed in this section. For example, if the student attended four schools where they attempted high school credit, there would be four records in this section. This is not restricted to high schools; any school where high school credit was attempted shall be listed, including middle schools or other schools where high school level courses are offered and high school credit may be attempted.

This section should be found only on the first page of a multi-page transcript.

This section is a single column of data different from the section and subsections that follow in the body of the document. The schools attended should be listed chronologically by entry date, oldest entry date first. If a single school is attended at two different points of time, then the school will be listed here twice with the corresponding entry dates.

2.2.3 ACADEMIC RECORD

| Data Type: Character | Length: approx. 105 | Number of Lines: 1 |

Format: ... X...X ...

Description: The student's academic history for all high school level courses attempted. This section includes all courses in which high school credit was attempted. Courses from which students have withdrawn must be reported as well as completed courses.

Business Rules: This sub-section is grouped by reporting period, oldest reporting period first, where reporting period is reported as the last month and year of the reporting period. For example, if a school is using semesters for their reporting period there would be two groups of records per year for the regular school year (this would not include a summer school reporting period). Each group would have an associated month and year for each semester with the grade level the student was assigned at the time of the reporting period. Each group would be followed by the course information pertinent to that group's records.

Washington State Standardized High School Transcript Developer / User Guide v.6.2
2.2.3.1 State Crs Code

Data Type: Character
Length: 5
Number of Lines: 1

Format: ######

Description: The state course code for the course in which credit was attempted.

Business Rules: The state course code must be included for transfer courses if it can be determined.

Notes:

Example: 02071
2.2.3.2 Dist Course Code

Data Type: Character  Length: 6(...)  Number of Lines: 1

Format: XXXXXX

Description: The district course code for the course in which credit was attempted.

Business Rules:

Notes: If your particular student information system uses more than 6 characters for course codes then you will need to shorten the course descriptions (see next data element) to allow room to display the longer course codes. The number of characters by which the course code exceeds the length of 6 is the number of characters that the description will need to be shortened.

Example: ENG202
2.2.3.3 Description

Data Type: Character  Length: 20  Number of Lines: 1

Format: XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Description: The district course description for the course in which credit was attempted.

Business Rules:

Notes: If the previous data element, Dist Course Code, is longer than 6 characters, this element, Description, will need to be adjusted (shortened) to accommodate the additional space needed for the Dist Course Code element.

If additional room is needed for the Description, the Description may be continued on the line below as long as it is in the same placement/column as the first line. Although this will make the transcript longer, this will maintain the standard format of the transcript.

AP and IB courses must include the official AP or IB course title or abbreviation. This allows receiving institutions to determine the specific AP or IB course. If districts wish to also display their chosen course title, the district may include the official AP or IB course title/abbreviation in brackets either before or after the district course title. For more information on approved and acceptable official AP course title abbreviations, go to AP Courses and Exams. Approved AP and IB course titles are available in Appendix Q of the CEDARS Manual.

Format: #.##

Description: The credits earned for the course in which credit was attempted.

Business Rules: All courses where the letter grade is from the GRADE POINT TABLE shall be included in the calculation of the GPA except if the student has retaken the course for grade improvement. In this case, the replaced course will have 0.00 Credit Earn, the grade may or may not be a passing grade (e.g., ‘D’), and that course will not be included in the calculation. Courses with grades found in the NOT TO BE USED IN GPA table may have credits earned, but are not included in the GPA calculation.

Notes:

Example: .50 or 1.00
2.2.3.6 Cred Attp

Data Type: Decimal
Length: 3,2
Number of Lines: 1

Business Rules: All courses in which the letter grade is from the GRADE POINT TABLE and the value of ‘Cred Attp’ is greater than 0.00 shall be included in the calculation of the GPA. If a course was retaken for grade improvement then the replaced course(s) will not be included in the GPA calculation and the credits attempted will be reported as 0.00 on the transcript.

Notes: Counting the credits for previous attempts at a course for letter grade improvement where the letter grade is from the GRADE POINT TABLE is allowable as long as these letter grades are factored into the GPA calculation and the credits attempted for the previous course is reported as greater than 0.00.

Example: .50 or 1.00

2.2.4.5 GPA Earn

Data Type: Decimal

Description: The total GPA credits earned for the reporting period.

Business Rules: Only courses for which the grade is included in the grade point table and is part of the GPA calculation for the reporting period shall be included in this total. Exclude courses with non-numerical marks/grades such as P/N, CR/NC, S/U, and W.

Notes: For example, if a student completed six .5 credit classes (earned 3.0 credits) in this reporting period, but one class the student earned a ‘P’ (pass) grade, the GPA Credits Earned would be 2.5 (5 x .5) since the class where a ‘P’ was earned is not part of GPA calculations.

Example: 0.50 + 0.50 + 0.50 + 0.50 + 0.50 = 2.50
2.2.4.6 GPA Attp

Data Type: Decimal  Length: 3,2  Number of Lines: 1

Description: The total GPA credits attempted for the reporting period.

Business Rules: Only courses for which the grade is included in the grade point table and is part of the GPA calculation for the reporting period shall be included in this total. Exclude courses with non-numerical marks/grades such as P/N, CR/NC, S/U, and W.

Notes: For example, if a student attempted six .5 credit classes (attempted 3.0 credits) in this reporting period, but one class the student is a ‘P’ (pass) grade, the GPA Credits Attempted would be 2.5 (5 x .5) since the class where a ‘P’ could be earned is not part of GPA calculations.

Example: 0.50 + 0.50 + 0.50 +0.50 +0.50 = 2.50
2.2.4.7 GPA Pts

Data Type: Decimal
Length: 5,2
Number of Lines: 1

Format: ###.##

Description: The total GPA points for the reporting period.

Business Rules: Courses that have marks that are not included in the grade point table (e.g., the mark of ‘P’ – pass) shall be excluded from this data element and the GPA calculations. Exclude courses with non-numerical marks/grades such as P/N, CR/NC, S/U, and W. Courses with letter grades that have been replaced because the student retook the course for the purposes of grade improvement shall be excluded from this data element and the GPA calculations.

Multiply the numerical value (Grade Reporting and Calculation Scale) of each letter grade earned by the number of credits attempted for the course. Then sum.

Total Sum of each (Letter Grade Point x Credits Attempted)
Notes: If a student attempted six .5 credit classes in a reporting period, one of the classes was retaken later, and in another class a ‘P’ (pass) grade was received, only four of the courses would be included.
